PSA SUBMISSION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- A separate form must accompany each submission level. When filling out your submission form please include the following: your name and contact information, the declared value of the card is the graded value, not the raw value, when you have multiples of the same card, the total declared value is the Value Graded x the number of cards, and any special details related to the card such as short print variations and parallels. Cards should be listed in the same order as in their box(es). There is no guarantee that PSA will incorporate the verbiage you use in the card's title/description.
- We do not accept trimmed or modified cards, and reserve the right to cancel an order if we detect any alterations. You will be responsible for return shipping and insurance if an order is canceled or returned not encapsulated for these reasons.
- If you are submitting graded cards for crossover they will be given that service, we do not crack cards for grading
- Your cards may be subject to an additional upcharge fee from PSA depending on how much the card is worth after grading. This occurs when your card grades are high enough to be moved up one or more service levels. You are responsible for paying those charges along with a small service fee.
- We do not guarantee any grades or guarantee PSA will assign the grade you might be expecting. All turnaround times for grading are approximate and we do not know or guarantee any specific date they might be completed.
- Insurance also covers cards that are being mailed from us to PSA, from PSA to us. Insurance does not pay out for a lost package once the carrier shows a package in delivered. A submission with no insurance is not covered at any time. Insurance ends once a carrier states items have been returned back to you or the items are picked up.. (They show as delivered). Insurance does not cover any packages that are stolen from a mailbox or porch.
- Once Dropped off ALL SUBMISSIONS ARE FINAL, no refunds will be issued. You cannot request a refund for any issues arising from grading results on returned items.
- You have legal ownership and full rights and authority to authenticate the item(s) you are submitting for authentication. All statements you have made, including regarding the character, quantity, features, condition, authenticity, and history of the item(s) are accurate.
- Submissions MUST be paid for before your graded cards are released to you. WE DO NOT RELEASE CARDS UNTIL PAYMENT IS RECEIVED.
- All terms and actions contained within this agreement, as well as any potential dispute resolution mechanisms are subject to New York State law. The actions stipulated in this submission are being performed in Suffolk County, New York and are subject to applicable law and the venues for dispute of that locality.
- SMR Collectibles will handle all submitted items with reasonable care designed to maintain the condition and value of all items relative to the condition and value of the item at the time that SMR took possession. However, if it is determined that an item was lost or damaged in our possession to a degree that fair market value has been significantly affected, customers will be compensated based upon the fair market value of the item as determined by SMR Collectibles which may include an insurance claim. SMR Collectibles is not liable for inadequate performance to the extent caused by a condition (for example, natural disaster, act of war or terrorism, riot, labor condition, governmental action, and Internet disturbance) that was beyond SMR's reasonable control.

I acknowledge having read the above terms and conditions.
